In the circuit court yesterday, Judgo Hervey overturned the bid of John A. Howard and T. S. Rliey for the plant of the Wood Brothers Planing Mil Com-pany at the corner of Chapline and Thirty-third streets, South Side. The sale of a lot on the South Side to Col-mar and Bell was confirmed.

The Church Quarrel.

The legal quarrel in which ex-Squire George Arkle and the trustees of the English Lutheran clurch have become involved saw new developments yester day in the courts. Constable Thomas. on advice from lawyers, discontinued his possession of the premises. Thereupon he entered sult in the circuit court against Justice James A. Dunning, and the squire's bondsmen, J. A. Jefferson and John Johnson, for $2,000 damages. The case is returnable at July rules. Howard & Handlan are attorneys for Thomas, and Mr. John O. Pendleton represents the justice. In addition to the above, executions and counter executions were issued yesterday and the case is becoming very much involved.

The Barratry Case.

argument for a change of venue in the barratry case of the state against W. J. Cotts was to have been had in the criminal court yesterday before Judge Hugus, but owing to other engagements of Colonel Arnett, counsel for Cotts, the matter was postponed, and will likely be heard to-morrow morning. In the event that the application for a change of venue is dealed the trial will likely begin Wednesday. It was stated has night that Mr. Cotts will circulate printed forms among the business peo ple and other citizens, in an attempt to show that sentiment in this community is such that he cannot secure a fair and impartial trial in Ohio county.

The Metropolitan club under the new nanagement has furnished the genuine article in the three entertainments givn and promises a corking contest next Monday night. The principals are Kid Soulette, of Rochester, N. Y., and Sam Bolen, colored, of New York City. They meet at 125 pounds. Goulette is a top-hotcher, and his record stamps him as one of the best in the business. A match between him and Jean Gardner match between him and oscar Ghruner was discussed for a long time, but it finally fell through. Bolen is also a good one, and anything he lands on has to give way. He has a punch that all the lads fight shy of.

The preliminary at Monday night's affair will be between local men, and there is quite a rush to get in the band wagon. It will likely bring Chippy Chapline and Louis Logamassino together, as both boys are anxious to try conquisions, and have been firing challenges at each other for several weeks.
